

Vocabulary

Victorians

gruel

wireless

workhouse

charabanc

artefacts

evidence

Queen Victoria

Sticky Knowledge:

- To talk about some events that happened before your grandparents were born
- To describe how children's lives today, are different to the lives of children in the past including working Victorian children, using photographs as evidence
- To know what objects we use today in the place of artefacts including a gramophone and penny farthing
- To describe memories of something that has changed in your own lifetime.
- To sequence pictures from different periods
- To use the words modern, future, century when describing events and artefacts

Penny farthing

Gramophone

